Create a fantasy Arena Football league

After logging in, click the button "Create League: AFL" on your Dashboard. Here is a list of all sports supported by AltFantasySports.

1. Fill out league name. This can be alphanumeric characters or emojis.
2. Choose positions your fantasy league members will have available. The default settings that the AltFantasySports admins think is best for casual players will be the default. To discover other ideas, read more about Team Positions, Individual Defensive Players (IDP) or other alternative league roster options.
3. Choose league scoring. The default settings that the AltFantasySports admins think is best for casual players will be the default. If you're unsure what league scoring to use and don't want to use the default, check out other common league scoring settings.
